

Reading Response

Questions

Story Elements 	Pick a picture in the book. Describe what is happening in the picture.	Did you learn any new words?
Who are the main characters? Describe the main characters.	What is this story about? 	Is there a moral or lesson in the story?
What is the setting of the story?		Why do think the author gave the book this title?
What is the problem in the story?		What is the purpose of the author writing this story? (inform or entertain)
How does the problem get solved?		What kind of connection did you have with this story or main character?
		What is the genre of this book? How do you know?
What was your favorite part of the story? Explain why!

Reading response questions ask the reader to examine, explain and defend their personal reactions to a reading.

