ABSENT/MAKE-UPS

If you are absent it is your responsibility to speak to the teacher about what you missed. You will not receive extra class time to complete an assignment without a note. You may make arrangements to come and to make-up tests or assignments during my planning period or one day after school if extra time is needed. Do not assume you can stay any day of the week. Arrangements must be made with the teacher at least 2 days prior.

ASSIGNMENTS & LATE ASSIGNMENTS

Assignments are expected to be turned in on the due date or will be a letter grade off each day it is not turned in.

You are not allowed to work on late assignments in class once we start a new assignment, and time management to maximize on your class time is essential. If you need additional time make arrangements to come and work during my planning period or one day after school. Do not assume you can stay any day of the week. Arrangements must be made with the teacher at least 2 days prior.

TURNING IN ASSIGNMENTS

Assignments will be turned in either in person or in Google Classroom. You will be responsible for taking a photo of your artwork and loading it into Google Classroom assignment if you are absent the day it is due. Your signature must be in the lower right hand corner of each artwork. If you turn in someone else's work as your own you will receive a zero. If students are caught cheating they will be given a 0 for the assignment and contact will be made with their parents/guardians at the very least.

CONSEQUENCES

For minor infractions, this is the order of consequences you can expect:

1. Warning
2. Student-Teacher Conference and loss of privileges.
3. Parent Contact
4. Write-up.

RESTROOM

- ❖ Go to the restroom before class during transitions.
- ❖ We are starting the lesson of the day during the first half of class and you do not want to miss it. No one is allowed to leave 10 minutes before the end of class.
- ❖ Only one student may go to the restroom at a time.

TECHNOLOGY POLICY

Cell phones are to go into the cell phone holder immediately when entering the classroom and cannot be accessed until the end of the class period. Students who break the rules will be asked to turn in their cell phones to the teacher to be given to the main office or an administrator will be called to collect it. If a student refuses to turn in the phone, an administrator will be contacted to confiscate the device.

Chromebooks are for instructional purposes and are not to be used to access games, social media, or video streaming websites during class time. Smart watches are to be turned off during testing and/or during review game days.

Students who are observed misusing technology will have their devices confiscated.

Syllabus Agreement

By signing below, I am indicating that I have read and discussed the the syllabus with my parent/guardian, and agree to adhere to its procedures and policies. I have taken the opportunity to discuss with both my teacher and my parent/guardian the expectations of the classroom, how I will be graded and by what criteria, and what materials I will need to have with me daily. I understand the procedures if I am absent from class and how to make-up work. I understand the consequences of turning in assignments late or if there is a behavior issue. I understand the technology policies and what the consequences are if I misuse them.

If there were any areas that were unclear and needed to be clarified, I have brought them to my teacher's attention prior to turning in this contract signed and dated.
